disabilities, and later be included under statutory and prosecutable offenses.

The immediate target is the inter-faith union within the expanded NCC (paralleled by a similar union within the World Council of Churches) on the basis of a broadened social gospel which will encompass (1) collaboration of Church and State in fostering racial and religious integration, massive federal-state-private "anti-poverty" and regionally-based urban renewal programs, and the coordination (and later outright control of all private secular and religious charitable and educational activities with (and later by) the Federal Government, and (2) the "reform" of religion, itself, to identify social "Commitment" and the "new morality" of unrestrained gratification of the physical senses with the actual worship of God.

Collaterally, all concepts of God as Divine Creator, Savior or Intercessor in the affairs of men are to be systematically "nominalized" and finally eliminated within the Council-affiliated religious bodies, with a series of Council pronouncements on the new faith and morals evolving as Council dogma which will come to be binding on all member organizations. At the same time, the Council, in collaboration with the political arm of Operation '76, will undertake to intensify the assault upon churches and individual clergy and evangelists who remain outside the Council and faithful to fundamental tenets which fail to yield to the secularizing of God and His forms of worship. The assault will take two approaches: one frankly political, the other psycho-sociological. In the first, resisting churches, missions and individual religionists will be identified with the "lunatic fringe" in the political area — the so-called "far-right," the "extremists," "fascists," et. al. In the second, the resisters will be portrayed as "sick," "paranoid," "escapist" and a menace to the "mental health" of both the local community and the Nation.

Satanic Religion Official

As these twin onslaughts, perpetuated by the liberal-oriented mass communications media, are determined by professional opinion surveys to have sufficiently isolated the non-ecumenicals from the sympathy and even the toleration, of the conditioned mass public, the Federal Government will move into position, first to circumscribe and then to render virtually unlawful the formal propagation of those religious teachings to which the National Council of Churches has objected. The Federal action will follow the twin formula which Operation '76 will have applied beforehand. Politically, the Internal Revenue Service will be pressured to establish "guidelines" for determining the tax status of religious organizations and practicing clergymen, evangelists, and their contributors. These guidelines will precisely duplicate the official stand of the NCC with respect to the permitted teachings of its member groups, so that, for taxing purposes, a "church" or "religious body" or "religious practitioner" will be defined in terms of the NCC's "creed" of a secular God, the social gospel and the new morality. Bodies and individuals deviating from this "creed," whether NCC-affiliated or not, are to be excluded from the exemptions granted their income and property in previous years, and contributors to such non-conformists will be restricted and taxed (or denied deductions) on the monies and property which they give or bequeath to the same. It is proposed that such "guidelines" shall extend to privately-endowed charitable, educational and social service organizations and institutions whose purposes or practices embrace religious, ethical, moral or social pronouncements or activities at variance with the developing State Religion.

At the same time, the NCC's psycho-sociological thrust will be reinforced by the Federal Government through another executive agency, the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, under which is operated the National Institute of Mental Health. The latter body is the one which was exposed nationally, in 1959, as having considered granting $29,000 in Federal tax money for untested drug experiments on ninety normal children to be hand-picked from the Montgomery County (Pennsylvania) Public School System! Under the present plan as conceived in Operation '76, the National Institute of Mental Health will receive and accept recommendations from the World Health Organizations, a Specialized Agency of the United Nations, setting forth "standards" for "healthy mental attitudes on religion and moral conduct." It is projected that these "standards" will parallel the "creed" of the National Council of Churches with respect to such matters, and that such concepts as Divinity, Salvation, "literalism" in Bible interpretation, chastity before marriage, abstinence from homosexual and perverted heterosexual relationships, etc., will be spelled out as latent signs of actual or potential "mental illness." As the Communist Party's "Lincoln Project" did in drafting a "Voting Rights" Bill which was enacted by Congress nine years later, "Operation '76" fixes an advance date for the introduction of legislation supplementing these "standards" in the United States. The year chosen by the Kremlin's blueprint is 1973, and the legislation (presently drafted by top Communist legal experts) provides for compulsory "observation, custodial care and such treatment as may be indicated by the patient's condition and prescribed by competent medical authority" in cases involving individuals "whose behavior, demeanor or public utterances as an individual religious practitioner shall be such as to impair the emotional well-being of the community as defined in Article II of this Act."

True Religion Outlawed

The projected legislation will be known as the "National Community Health Act," with provisions extending to all phases of federal-state health services. It is planned as an omnibus bill, recodifying and tightening by both new and amended provisions laws to be enacted in the same area during the years prior to its introduction. The Act, in its provisions dealing with "individual religious practitioners," would render it totally impossible for any individual religionist to continue a public ministry outside the secularized "creed" of the National Council of Churches, since impairing the emotional well-being of the community is defined in Article II as anything done "in the name or on the behalf of any religious body, sect, teaching or 'personal revelation,' or in the pursuit of any organized or individual political objective, including election to party or public office or nomination therefor, which creates, or is calculated to create, public mistrust, fear, alarm or panic, or which propagates social mistrust, hostility or hatred of, toward or for any other religious and or political body, belief or conviction, when such shall result from appeals to the superstitious, the supernatural or unvalidated interpretations of religious experience of an occult order, or when otherwise unsupported by accepted religious or political usage as established by law."

Included in the usages "established by law" will be a number of strenuous religious and political restrictions imposed upon both organizations and individuals resisting both the World Church and World State which are the interrelated objectives of the Kremlin's "Operation '76." The restrictions, imposed by a series of Federal "guide-lines," supplemental legislation and supporting Supreme Court decrees buttressing the assault upon our religious and political freedoms, include the psychological testing and screening of both religionists and contributors outside the NCC orbit; and one particular legal restraint on which we should spend a paragraph.

At this writing, agents operating within the world ecumenical movement have initiated the preparation of an "authorized version" of the Holy Bible which, by 1972, is to supplant the Douay Version in all Catholic (Roman) churches and Revised Standard Version in all Protestant pulpits allied with the NCC. This will be the First Edition of an "evolving World Bible" which will "ultimately come to engage and reconcile the religious beliefs of all rational Twenty-First Century Mankind." In the First Edition, marking the "reunion of world Christendom," all Divinity is to be stripped from the Second Person of The Godhead, with The Nazarene

What Fools We Christians Be!

Around the turn of the 19th Century, or some sixty-five years ago, America committed the same grievous error that Rome did. We opened our doors to immigration without discrimination, and it is leading to our downfall as surely as it helped to finish a once mighty Roman Empire.

For into America came every type of anarchist, Bolshevik and radical that Europe expelled and Russia forced out. Most of these troublemakers were Jews, Russian Jews, who have laid the groundwork for the racial dissension and strife that today is tearing America apart. By the time the "righteous" thinking Woodrow Wilson was elected president the army of refugees from Russia and Europe had entrenched themselves, entered into the labor unions' early organizations, and were on their way to establishing in America what they had planned for all Europe and what succeeded in Russia in 1918.

But the liberal Wilson, easily misled, was duped by these "champions of the masses" and appointed Brandeis as a Supreme Court justice. Although unthinkable until that time, it is of course now taken for granted that a Jew must sit on the Supreme Court. With the gullibility of Wilson the Jews saw their opening. Then, under Roosevelt, with the indifference and dissolution which accompanied the depression, the Jews—sons of the early immigrants and the immigrants too from Russia—moved into the halls of Washington, sat on the bureaus, and decided the policy of America behind closed doors and in league with Eleanor and Franklin D., who saw in the liberation of the minority Jew the continued success of their plans for the socialization of America.

At this time too the labor unions, early infiltrated with fractious Jews, rose into a position of power and formidable strength—pushed by communists, Jew reds, and opportunists who took advantage of the depression to assume control of the American government.

With the World War in 1939 in Europe, the Jews organized here to resist Hitler, save Palestine, and establish Israel as the headquarters of the world. With the termination of the war, the Nazi image, and the confused feelings of hate and fear of the Germans—which the Jews have never allowed to diminish—the Jews moved into Washington en masse. Communist and Jew alike had an ax to grind and the American nation was to be their whetstone. They alike capitalized on the "Nazi hate theme," continually stirring up malice and revenge against the "fascist." Truman was their willing tool, and by the time of McCarthy the entire State Department, the CIA and every other government body was contaminated by spies, traitors and opportunists. Many of these traitors were the sons of those early immigrants of Jewish heritage whom we allowed entrance into the emerging as the "historical Christ," the teacher and social reformer who met his death at the hands of the Roman political power, which viewed his work among the poor and socially oppressed as a threat to its retention of the Province of Palestine! That is the "story" of the crucifixion which "World Church" Protestants and Catholics will be obliged to accept by their highest prelates, and which all churches, denominations and individual evangelists and communicants will be compelled by law to acknowledge when, again in 1973, it is made an offense punishable by imprisonment to publish or preach the crucifixion account related in the Douay and King James Versions of the Scriptures! At this writing, the legislation to ban the crucifixion passages of these Bibles from print, from the pulpit and from all other forms of communication is being agitated by the organization assigned this task — the notorious Red front, the Anti-Defamation League. The legislation itself is already in draft form, prepared for introduction into Congress well in advance of the publication of the First Edition of the "evolving World Bible" in which the ADL is also taking an active interest.
